Advocates Guidebook Training Kenya

Dr Dave and Dr Joseph led the Advocate Guidebook Training late last month in Nairobi, Kenya. The program was attended by delegates from Burundi, Kenya and Uganda. After the program the delegates shared the impact that this program has had on them. They also shared what they intend to take back and implement when they get back home to their respective missions and countries. You can see these videos in the impact section of this newsletter.

Advocates Guidebook Training Ghana

After Kenya Dr Dave and Dr Joseph travelled to Nsuta - Mampong a lovely township in rural Ghana. Here they led the Advocate Guidebook Training for CE delegates from Ghana, Nigeria and the Gambia.

CE has had a massive positive impact in Ghana and all the CE leaders shared impact stories on what CE means to them. You can see these videos in the impact section of this newsletter.

CE India

At the recent Triennial convention of CE in South India held in Mahabalipuram in Tamilnadu about 100 delegates participated. Rev. Surendra Kumar Sahu and Dr. P.N.Pradhan represented CE in India and CE-World. The youth had a meeting with Rev Sahu and Dr Pradhan who thanked them and reinforced that their commitment and involvement or their partnership in the CE movement is highly relevant and appreciated.

CE Malawi

Pastor Patrick Manyawa and Pastor James Luphale led a meeting of youth from several churches in Bantyre that included evangelical church of Malawi, African Evangelical church, Seventh Day Adventists to name a few. The participants were reminded to use the CE Promise/Pledge as often as possible.

CE Ireland

The 109th Irish Convention meant a full church from very young children, lots of young people to Seniors; a warm welcome; inspirational worship, wonderful singing and a delightful supper.
